

Office Space Lease Questions & Answers

- 1) We are currently putting together a proposal for Office Space Lease and we see that Vendors must complete state disclosure and certification documents. Could you please give us more information regarding that?

Answer: State disclosure and certification documents are not necessary at this time. Once a vendor has been notified that they are the final contender for the award they will be asked to complete the state disclosure and certification documents process as part of the evaluation and requirements steps.